Quotes for the Week

My mother is a very disciplined lady and a prayer warrior. I owe a great debt to her in the way her example has influenced my life, and I could never thank God enough for giving her to me as a mother.

Thrasher, W., & Lutzer, E. (2003). A journey to victorious praying: finding discipline and delight in your prayer life. Chicago, IL: Moody Publishers.

My mother, for example, was not perfect but was pretty close. That was not just my opinion. It seemed to be the opinion of most everyone that was ever around her. As I grew up, our home was the place all my friends wanted to be. Mom not only always had food to offer but also a listening ear. My friends loved talking to her. Often I would have friends over and find myself alone in my room as they made their way to the kitchen to spend time with my mom.
