Quotes for the Week

REVERENCE TOWARDS GOD. "Father" is non-Jewish terminology. Our relationship with God is personal and close. Jesus commonly addresses and refers to God as "Father". This is a very personal relationship that is open to you and me as well. God seeks the same closeness to us (as adopted children) that a (loving, godly) father would have towards his own children. However, it is dependent upon us desiring the same level of relationship with Him. What does "Father, God" mean to you?
Copple, G. M. (1999). Getting to Know Jesus (Vol. 21, p. 22). Torrence, CA: New Hope Gospel Ministries.

Joshua was a great leader and a courageous general, and he was also a godly father who led his family in serving the Lord. He took seriously the example of Abraham (Gen. 18:19) and the exhortation of Moses (Deut. 6:4–9). Parents today need to take these Scriptures seriously, and also what Paul wrote in Ephesians 5:22–6:4.
