Quotes for the Week

If you are the only believer in your family, you will be tested by those who are not. They will want to see if your commitment to Christ is genuine. They will want to know if you will “grow out of it” or if it is just a “passing phase.” Persevere. Remain faithful in both your silent and verbal witness to them. Love them as Christ would. Treat them with utmost care. Pray without ceasing for God to reclaim their souls from the world that they might experience the joy of his salvation.

Invite other Christians to pray with you specifically for your family members as well as for your positive testimony as you live with them.

God honors the prayers of those whose hearts belong to him.

Time is short; eternity is long. Faithfulness in this life will be rewarded in the next. The churches in Asia Minor had their light extinguished many centuries ago. What would they tell us today if they could? They would say that persecution for Christ is to be expected, and that we must remain faithful no matter how high the cost.

Be Strong In The Lord

Verse 1

Be strong in the Lord
And be of good courage
Your mighty defender
Is always the same
Mount up with wings
As the eagle ascending
Victory is sure
When you call on His name

Chorus

Be strong be strong
Be strong in the Lord
And be of good courage
For He is your guide
Be strong be strong
Be strong in the Lord
And rejoice
For the victory is yours

Verse 2

So put on the armor
The Lord has provided
And place your defense
In His unfailing care Trust Him for He will
Be with you in battle
Lighting your path
To avoid every snare

Verse 3

Be strong in the Lord
And be of good courage
Your mighty commander
Will vanquish the foe
Fear not the battle
For the victory is always His
He will protect you wherever you go
