Quotes for the Week

To feel sin and the need of a Saviour is the first sign of the life; it is its first breath; with it the life necessarily begins. Men absorbed in self find a new life when self is crushed in the dust.

Spence-Jones, H. D. M., ed. (1909). Acts of the Apostles (Vol. 1, p. 375).
Funk & Wagnalls Company.

When we are convicted of sin, we are convicted of the need of a Saviour; and we seek for the Saviour intellectually and in various other ways till we meet with our Lord by the power of His Spirit and experience salvation;

Chambers, O. (1937). The philosophy of sin: and other studies on the problem of man's moral life. Marshall, Morgan & Scott.

...but in depths of agony about sin we feel the need of a Saviour, and rejoice to sing—
“Nothing in my hands I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling.”

Spence-Jones, H. D. M., ed. (1910). Isaiah (Vol. 2, p. 61). Funk &
Wagnalls Company.

Community and Other Events

Sixteen 13 Ministry

They are looking to raise funds to purchase candy for local children whom our Compassion Ministry of Groceries is helping. Two thousand dollars has been raised, and we need an additional one thousand.

Would you consider supporting this ministry to help reach children through a gift of love? Each stocking has a New Testament, a Christian coloring book, a Bible Track, and candy. All checks can be given to the WBMC office. Please make the checks written to the Assembly of All Nations. In the memo, write Candy for Sixteen 13 Ministry. We appreciate your support!
