Quotes

There's no greater question that I could ask than, who is Jesus Christ? Answer it wrong, all else will be wrong. Listen, precious friend. Your eternal destiny hangs on that question.

Rogers, A. (2017). What Child Is This? In Adrian Rogers Sermon Archive (Jn 1:1–4). Rogers Family Trust.

Do not confuse your minds with doctrinal riddles nor amuse your souls with spiritual conundrums; but believe in him who is Jesus, the faithful and true, who makes known to us the heart of the Father. Believe that he died in our stead. Believe that he took our sin upon him, and carried it all away. Believe that we are justified through his resurrection, and are made to live because he lives.

Spurgeon, C. H. (1998). Spurgeon's Sermons (electronic ed., Vol. 37). Ages Software.

With both John the Baptist and Jesus at work in Israel, messianic rumors flourished. Once John died, Christ became the focus of all speculation. It never ended; it hasn't to this day. Exactly who is Jesus? We must each answer for ourselves; and on our answer hangs our eternal fate. For make no mistake—Jesus is not a rumor; he is real!
