Quotes

Servant leadership is, in its essence, an attitude. Servant leadership is defined more by who you are than by what you do. All servant leaders do not look alike, think alike, or minister alike. Defining servant leadership by any performance category or job description needlessly limits the possibilities.

Iorg, J. (2007). The character of leadership: nine qualities that define great leaders (pp. 117–118). B&H Books.

When Jesus washed His disciples' feet (John 13:3–5), He demonstrated a fundamental principle that He regularly stressed to His followers: To lead others, one must serve others.
