Discovery Group on Suffering

If you are walking with someone who is going through health issues, Paul Tripp's book on Suffering will minister to you and the one suffering. We have decided to have as many people read this book (it is also available on audio). We currently have 18 of us who are already enjoying it, and at some point, in the near future, we want to come together to discuss how we can best use this as a resource to help each other walk through what is happening in our lives.
