Quotes

Even in the midst of your daily schedule, look upon your heart as the dwelling place of the Son of God. Then Christ’s words: “Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit” (John 15:5) will become your daily experience.

Christ, I choose to remain in You each day—as You have promised to dwelt in me. Even as I go about the practical, little things of life, remind me that my heart is Your home. And everywhere I go, you go, Jesus.

Amen

Murray, A. (2015). 3-minute devotions with andrew murray: inspiring devotions and prayers. Barbour Books.

As the fruitbearing branch must remain in the vine, so we must remain in Christ. Faith means resting in Christ, leaning on him, drawing strength from him moment by moment, and living in constant fellowship with him. Faith is not just believing that Christ did something important for us many years ago; it includes the recognition that Christ is now living in us and that we are now living in him. Faith grasps not just a Christ for us, but also a Christ in us.
