K & K

Pembina Valley Bible Camp

please pray for our fall fundraisers coming up (Rideathon, Pies and Fries, Split and Stack). That they would go smoothly and that the people coming would be blessed by the event and that we would also get the funds needed.

Church Family Information

Next Sunday, September 21, the church service will begin at 10:00 a.m. with potluck to follow in the Fellowship Hall with guest speakers Donovan and Char Epp.

We will be having Communion on September 28. Prepare your hearts, as far as it depends upon you, that you are in fellowship with God and others.

Deacon nominations will be held on Sunday, September 28th. Please take time to read the informational insert in the bulletin.

As we consider the future direction of our church and as we seek God's guidance, let's be in prayer, asking for wisdom as we discern his leading.

The attendance last Sunday, September 7 was 154.

Paraguay Comes to Canada! Everyone is warmly invited to a concert featuring music, dance, and stories of God's faithfulness from students living in a slum in Paraguay. This FREE CONCERT will be on Friday, September 26th at 7 pm at Emmanuel Mennonite Church in Winkler. No tickets required. A freewill offering will be received to support Christ-centred education in Latin America. For more information call 204-415-6836 or visit www.genrising.org/events.

Quotes

Now the disciples were leaving Him, but time and space are not barriers to prayer. For example, in this prayer, were going to see that Jesus prayed for His disciples, and then He said, I don't just pray for these, I pray for those who will believe on me through their word. He prayed for me. That prayer is two thousand years old, and yet it has had effect in my life. Isn't that wonderful? You see, that's a wonderful thing about prayer. Prayer just transcends time. Prayer can be like a missile with a delayed destination. It can be fired through the centuries.

Rogers, A. (2017). The Greatest Prayer Ever Prayed. In Adrian Rogers Sermon Archive (Jn 17:1–4). Rogers Family Trust.

Jesus prays for future believers also, to the end that these may, with His then existing disciples, form one communion in holy love. With these words, the Lord declares the whole essence of His Church on earth. He came to restore unity to the disrupted human race, by means of their reconciliation to God.

Lange, J. P., & Schaff, P. (2008). A commentary on the Holy Scriptures: John (p. 527). Logos Bible Software.

Jesus prays for future believers who will believe the disciples' message that they would be one together with the Father and Son (John 17:21–22).

Keown, M. J. (2018). Discovering the New Testament: An Introduction to Its Background, Theology, and Themes: The Gospels & Acts: Vol. I (p. 312). Lexham Press.

(John 17:20–26, Jesus' Prayer for the Church). Finally, Jesus prays for future believers (v. 20; cf. 20:29), for their unity with himself, the Father, and each other. This unity will serve their mission to the world (17:18, 20–21).
