Quotes

The story of Jonah is the story of each and every one of us. We've all run from God in one way or another. As much as we like to think that our situation is unique, it's not. We're all runners, and we all run for the same reason: We wanted something other than what we thought or even knew God wanted for us.

Boa, K., & Turner, J. A. (2008). The 52 Greatest Stories of the Bible (pp. 145–146). Regal Books.

Here's a man (Jonah) we assume would be faithful to God but chose instead to be self-serving at a critical moment. What draws me into this story isn't a great fish but a great failure. Jonah was a man on the run from God.
