Quotes

Nothing is more exciting than seeing someone come to faith in Christ. Seeing God open closed hearts and illuminate dark minds is a rewarding part of belonging to His spiritual family.

There is nothing more affirming than knowing that God is active in the lives of those who seek His touch, and nothing more exciting than seeing the passion and enthusiasm of those people for the God who has revealed Himself in such personal and restorative ways.

In what ways can the church today carry out its missionary mandate, not only in sharing the gospel, but in the way we treat all people? (See Gal. 6:10.)
