Quotes

Revival is needed when prosperity and success seduce the heart into selfish security. Consequently, any threat to that security breeds extreme discomfort. A satisfied people do not like it when prophets confront their compromising ease. The people prefer not to be reminded of the holy, separated life the Nazirites conspicuously demonstrated. Revival is endangered when the prophets are commanded to be silent and when the standards for a separated life are mocked and challenged.

Pratney, W., Hill, S., & Winslow, T. S., eds. (2010). The Revival Study Bible (p. 1216). Genesis Books.

Wherever we look today, revival is needed. Every nation, as well as every community and church, need to be revived and led to make recommitments to the LORD. For this reason, God's people must be about the business of the LORD, working to bring about revival and renewal.

Leadership Ministries Worldwide. (2005). Isaiah: Chapters 36–66: Vol. II (p. 35). Leadership Ministries Worldwide.

...Revival changes communities and nations. American theologian A.W. Tozer defines revival as a move of God that “changes the moral climate of a community.”¹³ History shows that a true awakening leaps far beyond the walls of any church and radically reforms society.
