Quotes for the Week

We imagine we have to do these things for ourselves; we have not, we have to keep steadily in the light of the Cross, relying on the Spirit of God, then we will live out the life He wants us to live. Whenever we get our eyes off Christ and His Cross and build up on our own experience, "Now God has sanctified me, I am all right," we become betrayers of the very power that saved us. When we walk in the light, with the whole of our attention taken up with Jesus Christ, there is manifested in us a holiness that glorifies God in every particular. Never get off on the intellectual line,

"Think proper thoughts." Live proper lives and you will think proper thoughts.

Chambers, O. (1996). Approved unto God. Hants UK: Marshall, Morgan & Scott.

To be filled with the Holy Spirit is to be filled with Christ. The Holy Spirit came to glorify Christ. Therefore, if I am filled with the Spirit, I am abiding in Christ. I am walking in the light as He is in the light, and the blood of Jesus Christ will cleanse and keep on cleansing me from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:7).

I am controlled by Christ because the word “filling” means to be controlled. And if I am controlled—not as a robot but as one who is led and empowered by the Spirit—the Lord Jesus will walk around in my body and live His resurrection life in and through me.

Bright, B. (1971). How you can be filled with the holy spirit (pp. 14–15). Orlando, FL: NewLife Publications.

One semester we admitted a blind student to the seminary. I noticed that as he went from class to class, or dorm room to dining room, someone held his arm and guided him to his destination. The one who took his arm was his light, and he walked in the light of another.

The world in which we live is blind. If all men were blind, the blind would have no desire for anything other than their blindness. But because you see, you create a desire in a blind man for that which he does not have but which you have; then you become light to the one who is blind to lead him to One who is the Light of the world.
