Quote for the Week

Paul also reminded them (the Corinthians in 1:26-31) that God did not save them because of who they were. He delighted to make “somebodies” out of “nobodies” so that the recipients of His creative grace would glory in Him, not in their station of life, either past, present, or future. To confound the wise, mighty, and noble, He chose the foolish, weak, base, and despised, and the things which are not. All spiritual possessions (wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption) have been made or imputed to us because of our position in Christ, not because of our human status.

Gromacki, R. G. (1974). New Testament survey (p. 207). Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic.

As believers, our position in Christ is perfect: we are complete in Him (Col. 2:10); we have all things that pertain to life and godliness (2 Pet. 1:3); and we have received all spiritual blessings (Eph. 1:3). But now we need to progress in our daily lives in a way that is commensurate with our exalted position. MacArthur, J. (2001). Truth for Today: a daily touch of God’s grace (p. 44). Nashville, Tenn.: J. Countryman.

Lost are saved find their way, At the sound of Your great Name
