Quotes for the Week

I don't care who you are, God loves you! You may not always experience the love of God. Our sins put up an umbrella between God and us. In spite of our sin, God loves you and He loves me. He has demonstrated that love at the cross of Christ. When we receive Christ as Savior, we can experience the love of God.

McGee, J. V. (1997). Thru the Bible commentary (electronic ed., Vol. 1, p. 543). Nashville: Thomas Nelson.

You don't have to be perfect for God to love you. God loves you, not because you are lovable, but because it is his nature to love you. He wants to free you from slavery to religious appearances, self-deception, and lies that are designed to cover up the real truth. He wants to free you from the terrible burden of trying to keep up a religious facade. God offers you and me a chance to get real—and to stop being spiritual imposters.

Albrecht, G. (2004). Bad news religion: the virus that attacks god's grace. Nashville: Thomas Nelson.
